Information

The SF535 is one of New Zealand's favorites, with over 2000 SF535 to their credit, Haines Hunter continues to refine and improve this little thoroughbred. The superb 'Deep V' hull is part of the secret that gives the Haines Hunter ride, and now with a little more flare the SF535 is dryer than ever.

Increased head room in the cabin and restyled windscreen that's all class, steps this boat out from the rest. Other features include a separate anchor locker, integrated bowsprit, overnight cabin, lots of cockpit space and a portifino transom that adds storage space and stability.

Feature for feature this Haines Hunter is great value. All up, weighing in at 1200kg, makes for an easy tow for the average 2 litre car.
